What did he said?

By his grace, we have been successfully organizing nullcon, year on year and this is the Nullcon9. At this juncture we cannot forget what did he had said, the one panacea given by him…

In 2010 when we were all worried, how can we be successful with this first ever event…

He raised a toast in Shisha Cafe and said….
Whatever he said became our guiding principle. To preserve his message Jailer encrypted it in a file "encrypt.txt" and deleted the private key.

What we recovered were few public keys, and confession of few inmates tells us that they had crooked Jailer's machine to produce repetitive numbers.

Given this dump of what we recovered… for 300 nullcoins we need to find out …

What did he said?